WHEREAS, the use of credit has become increasinly important to the American consumer and to the nation's economy, evidenced by the fact that consumer installment purchases have risen from 14.7 billion dollars in 1950 to more than $317 billion dollars in 1979; and,

WHEREAS, The country's economic health rests in part on the consumer's wise use of credit and good money management; and,

WHEREAS, The prompt payment of bills will help prevent higher prices and curb inflation, as well as give the consumer peace of mind and the right to use credit; and,

WHEREAS, The American Collectors Association, Inc., an international organization of 12,700 bonded collection services is sponsoring an educational program designed to help the consumer use credit with caution, spend wisely and pay his bills promptly:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 4-8, 1980, as

NATIONAL PAY YOUR BILLS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty
